Understanding and Celebrating the Human-Animal Bond™

Art Night & Auction

...With champagne & appetizers

The Animal History Museum is the first museum dedicated to understanding and celebrating the human-animal bond™. Want to learn more? Please join us for refreshments - hear about our plans, meet some of our development team, see a sample pop-up exhibit, enjoy the original art and indoor/outdoor gallery space at Hovik's Fine Arts - and bid on your own piece of history as we hold our first art auction to benefit the museum!

When: Friday, May 17, 2013
7:00 PM - 9:30 PM

Where: Hovik's Fine Arts
5422 Cahuenga Blvd., North Hollywood, CA 91601

Tickets: $25 in advance/$30 at the door

To order tickets or make a donation, please visit:

<http://animalhistorymuseum.eventbrite.com>

Both are tax-deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law

Questions? Email us at info@animalhistorymuseum.org

This evening made possible through the generous donation of Hovik Kochinian and Hovik's Fine Arts. Thank you!
