An exploration of this special relationship through scientific, literary and artistic perspectives, Dearest Creature offers a glimpse into the real star power behind AHM: the nationally and internationally recognized scholars, artists and other professionals who are developing this exhibition, our online content, as well as serving on our board and advisory council. AHM is also a recipient of a Top-Rated 2013 Nonprofit ranking by GreatNonprofits.org. The award is based on positive online reviews by donors, advisors, board members and members of the general public.
